

Group for Parents and Concerned Adults, Who Want To Know More about Substance Use or Abuse And Parenting Teens

We believe that there is very little support for parents struggling with their teens and young adult's choices to use drugs and alcohol.

Programming for parents and other significant adults is offered to educate, support and assist in identifying options and creative solutions to resolving parental concerns.

Breakaway is a non-profit social service agency funded by the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Community and Youth Services

Making a Donation

Although Breakaway receives operating funds from the government, it also relies on contributions from corporate and private donors to maintain quality services and programming, and to expand and implement innovative programs for vulnerable youth and their families.

Donations can be made by individuals, groups or corporations directed to the agency or to specific programs. Donations can be made in the name of or in memory of a friend or relative.
